

Adam North Bio:

Adam is a born again Jesus follower whose whole heart, soul, and mind is set on loving God and having men imitate him as he imitates Christ.

He answered God's Call to full time ministry on January 4, 2014 and left a career as a welder, fabricator, and 5x NASCAR Champion Jackman in both the Nationwide & Sprint CUP Series.

Adam delights himself in the LORD, and is given the desires of his heart as he oversees The EMAW Ministry in the Southeast. From National Conferences to no one knows but God and the man he's crying or rejoicing with - he makes disciples, who go and make disciples.

He resides in Trinity NC where he and his wife, Jessie, are eaten up with zeal for the house of The LORD. She is his best friend in the world not named Holy Spirit, wife of more than 15 years, and the one he's most privileged to daily give up his life and rights for. Noah and Bowen, their two teenage sons, both of whom he lead to Christ in their home, are his foremost disciples.
